A WEEKLY JOURNAL, IDENTICAL IN INTEREST WITH ITS OWN PEOPLE.

VOL. III.

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1893.

NO. 49

1776.

Dar. Smith is out again after a severe sickness. He reports that he has four cases of scarlet fever among the children at his house.

The Illinois Steel Company, of Chicago, has contracted with a number of coal companies operating in the West Virginia coal field for their entire output during the six months commencing with July 1. The contract is regarded as quite a victory for the West Virginia coke over the Conellville companies.

Charleston, S. C., is not to have a State dispensary for the sale of liquor under the new law which went into effect July 1, and the people there have consequently been busy within the past few weeks preparing for the new order of things. Hundreds of homes have laid in six months' supply, the general impression being that the law will not last longer than that.

The communication from President W. H. Dulaney, of the Kentucky World's Fair Commission, in response to a request from the Legislature shows that only $52,604.39 of the $100,000 appropriation has been expended; an unusual instance of a commission in charge of public funds being entirely too economical. The object of the appropriation is that it might be expended to exhibit Kentucky's resources.

Mr. Dallas, of Carlisle, died in this city Friday morning at the residence of his brother-in-law J. W. Bonroughs. The deceased who was about 46 years of age leaves a most devoted wife and daughter. Mr. Dallas came here some few weeks since to secure medicinal treatment for Bright's disease, but he rapidly gave way before the progress of the ailment. He was a bright and enthusiastic Knight of Pythias and enjoyed the confidence and friendship of a wide circle of friends. His wife and daughter have the sincere sympathy of the community.

On last Thursday at 12 o'clock, John W. Carson, of the firm of Carson, Boston and Brother, live stock dealers, Richmond, Virginia, was loading hogs from the stock yards of the C. & O. R. R. Co.; at this place, and having finished was yet standing in the chute when another train collided with the train against the chute which gave way. Mr. Carson jumped to the ground breaking his left leg just below the knee, and the right leg at the ankle. Dr. R. O. Drake assisted by Dr. W. T. Shumard and W. R. Thompson, set the broken limbs and on Friday morning, Dr. Thompson took him to his home in Richmond, Virginia. Cap Gillispie was with Mr. Carson when hurt and received painful injuries about the hips. Mr. Carson's injuries are very serious and indications are that he will be a cripple for life. A damage suit will be filed against the C. & O. probably.

SWANGO.

GETS THERE AGAIN.

Jas. H. Swango Carries Off the Honors in the National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest.

J. H. SWANGO.

The following special from Chicago bears good news for the friends of the popular young orator, Jas. H. Swango: World's Fair, Chicago, July 1.—Jas. H. Swango, who recently won first prize in the Kentucky Intercollegiate oratorical contest, won first prize here last night in the national intercollegiate oratorical contest, L. S. Bentley, of DePauw University winning second prize. The contest was held under the auspices of a local club, with fifteen States represented, and Mr. Swango, who was the only Kentucky representative, won easily and handsomely.

Mr. Swango has been so bitterly ridiculed and so savagely assailed by the friends of the best contestants for the prize in the Kentucky Intercollegiate oratorical meeting, that this news of his signal victory will be received with vast pleasure by all who know the young man. The facts are that the uncalculated assaults have won for Swango much sympathy, and instead of doing him the hurt intended, have done him good.

James Welch, of Louisville, passed through the city Saturday evening. The fake that James Corbett, the pugilist, would be on board the fast evening train reached here before the train, and a crowd of those who wanted to see the man Corbett were at the depot, and those who saw Welch were satisfied that they had seen the World's champion pugilist.

Mt. Sterling Breeders' Association begin their first meeting this morning. There are a large number of blue show horses on the grounds and also a very large number of trotters and pacers. The exhibitions and races during the week promise to be very fine.

JULY 4.

CONGRESS.

An Extra Session Called For Friday, August 7.

President Cleveland issued his proclamation on Friday calling an extra session of Congress to convene at 12 m. August 7. The financial entanglement is the only question mentioned for the consideration of this extra session of the Fifty-third Congress. The text of the proclamation is as follows:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1893.—Whereas, the distrust and apprehension concerning the financial situation which pervade all business circles have already caused great loss and damage to our people and threaten to cripple our merchants, stop the wheels of manufacture, bring distress and privation to our farmers and withhold from our workingmen the wage of labor; and

Whereas, The present perilous condition is largely the result of a financial policy which the Executive branch of the Government finds enacted in unwise laws which must be executed until repealed by Congress: Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, in performance of a constitutional duty, do by this proclamation, declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the convening of both Houses of the Congress of the United States, at the Capitol, in the city of Washington, on the 7th day of August next, at 12 o'clock noon, to the end that the people may be relieved through legislation from present and impending danger and distress. All those entitled to act as members of the Fifty-third Congress are required to take notice of this proclamation and attend at the time and place above stated.

Given under my hand and the seal of the United States, at the city of Washington, on the 30th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and seventh.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Six more insurance companies have withdrawn from Tennessee owing to the new insurance law. Gov. Turney will be asked to call an extra session of the Legislature to repeal the law.

The weekly review of trade of Dun & Co. says: "Throughout the country, while collections are slow and failures numerous, the condition of legitimate business is regarded as healthy, and hopes are entertained that the worst has passed. The hopes are based mainly on the belief that the silver law will be repealed and that the certainty of its repeal will encourage foreign investments here."

Menefee Mass Meeting.

At a mass meeting of the Democrats of Menefee county, held in the Court-house at Frenchburg, Ky., on Monday, June 6, 1893, (County Court day) pursuant to notice and call of Hon. J. H. Williams, late Chairman of the Democratic County Committee for Menefee county. The meeting was called to order, and the objects stated by Judge J. J. Byrne, present County Chairman. The committee as selected upon the advice and suggestion of H. P. Thompson, Esq., member of State Central Committee from the Tenth Congressional District was approved and confirmed. They were as follows: to-wit: Members for First District J. J. Byrne and H. D. Combs, Frenchburg; for Second District, J. H. Wells, Wellington; for Third District, Richard Harris, Loosesome; for Fourth District, J. J. Chambers, Cedar Grove; for Fifth District, W. C. Catron, Pomeroyton; J. J. Byrne, of Frenchburg, was elected Chairman and J. H. Wells, of Wellington, Secretary.

The following preamble and resolutions were then introduced and unanimously adopted, to-wit:

Whereas, the counties of Montgomery and Menefee by Legislative enactment compose the Legislative District and believing from the friendly relations heretofore existing between the citizens of the two counties and expressing a sincere desire that such friendly relations may continue, therefore be it

Resolved, That we the Democrats of Menefee county in mass meeting assembled, recognize in the person of our esteemed citizen, Mr. J. J. Chambers, a Democrat true and tried, a man of strong native intellect, of ability and worth and one worthy of the confidence and esteem of the people of this district. We recommend his selection and nomination by the Democrats of this District to represent us in the next General Assembly.

Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the Democratic newspapers of this District.

J. J. BYRNE, Chairman.

J. H. WELLS, Secretary.

Republicans, in their private correspondence, charge the stringency in financial circles to the Democratic administration. Was there ever such concentrated gall? Charging Democrats for all this trouble, when they have done nothing but live under Republican laws, without an opportunity to help themselves. There has been no change. Where we are, is the result of Republican legislation. But one thing could be chargeable to the Democratic party—the delay in calling an extra session of Congress for the express purpose of repealing Republican measures; and this has now been done. The Republican statements are either from ignorance or meanness.

Mr. Jersey Bull, "Suddnth," will stand this season at Wm. Reese's farm, on the Grassy Lick pike, at $2.50 cash at service, with privilege of breeding back until cow stands, 42-47.

CONSOLIDATED

GAS AND ELECTRICITY.

The Two Companies Have Agreed on a Basis and There Will be no Competition After the 15 Instant.

For some time past a consolidation of these two companies has been in the wind, but nothing definite could be gotten from the parties interested. On Thursday the stockholders and attorneys of the two companies met in the law office of Tyler & Apperson and in the afternoon it was given out that a consolidation had been made to take effect July 15. Some say this means higher prices. We do not believe it. The same force that runs one will be able to run both and they can now afford to contract at a lower rate than heretofore. There is no reason why Mt. Sterling should be lighted at as low a rate as any city.

Should this company attempt a higher rate, the city, we are informed will take care of itself by putting in a plant of their own. This we hope will not be necessary. If the people want an electric railway from here to Sharpshurg, the company will prepare to furnish the power. Both Sharpshurg and Mt. Sterling should give this matter consideration, and if they think it would be a paying investment bring it before the capitalists. Would it not be wise for the City Council to appoint a committee to act with a committee from Sharpshurg and if it would be a profitable investment, bring the matter to the notice of moneyed men.

During the past seven days throughout the United States there were 334 business failures. For the quarter ending Friday night there were 3,119 failures, against 2,119 for the same period of 1892. For the first six months of 1893 there 6,401 crashes as compared with 5,503 the corresponding time last year. Bradstreet's review give the liabilities so far this year to be $170,000,000, while the increase of liabilities over the first half of last year is figured to be $114,000,000, just $8,000,000 more than Dun & Co.'s reckoning.

One of the leading farmers of this County, who has ready for harvest 100 acres of wheat, made the statement after a calculation of cost of production, and said he would lose, if he got fifty cents per bushel, $100 on his crop.

Born, to J. L. Haluline and wife, July 1st, a son.

The action of Gov. Allgeld, of Illinois, in pardoning the three anarchists, Fielden, Schwab and Neebe is receiving a general condemnation from all sources. The Governor in his lengthy statement, setting forth his reasons for his action, has seen fit to attack the integrity of the judge who tried the case, of the jury that heard it, of the public prosecutors, witnesses, in fact, of all concerned. He chooses to set himself up for a critic of the action of the court, though that court's action has been reviewed by the Supreme Court of the State, and even the Supreme Court of the United States could be made to see no reason why it should interfere with the action of the lower court. Gov. Allgeld has done a dangerous thing. It was a daring stroke for authority. But a blow at the peace and good order of society that may yet cost dear. The lesson taught the red-mouthed anarchists after the Haymarket slaughter was a wholesome one, and now comes Gov. Allgeld and does what lays in his power to negate that lesson. Men in all ages of the world have been willing to win notoriety, no matter how unbecoming, at whatever cost; but the expense to the public of Gov. Allgeld's action will probably be much heavier than can now be estimated. The Governor has chosen a specially unfortunate time so far as the peace and good order of society is concerned for his action. Just at present we have reports coming to us of a renewed activity throughout Europe, on the part of that dangerous element known as the anarchists, to say nothing of the fact that at the very time these pardons were issued they were raising a monument to those hung for the Haymarket slaughter, and this nullifying of the action of the courts in the Haymarket riot, is exceedingly dangerous. The lesson taught the foes to society at that time was a wholesome one; but Gov. Allgeld has probably given them such encouragement that it will require yet more severe exercise of the strong arm of the law to keep these fiends in subjection.

In this issue we are authorized to say to the Democrats of Montgomery county that Mr. S. S. Cassity is a candidate to represent this Legislative district in the lower house of the next Legislature. Surely there is not a Democratic voter in Montgomery county who has not thoroughly acquainted with Mr. S. S. Cassity, the editor of the Sentinel-Democrat. We as yet, have heard of no opposition he will have from the county.

Among the announcements for Jailer, you will find that of Jo. C. Turley. Jo. Turley is known to every man, woman and child, almost, in the county. He has bought your cattle, hogs, sheep, etc., and says he has paid you such big prices for them that he has made no money out of it. He says if he is not a successful candidate as a stock buyer, he knows he can make a good Jailer. He asks that you give him a favorable consideration, and those of his friends that stand by him will not be forgotten by him. You will recall the warning, "see unto you when all men shall speak of you." Jo Turley falls among those so warned, for everyone has a good word to say of him.

Trav Leach is a candidate for Jailer, of Montgomery county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Trav says he "just knows he can make a better Jailer than any of the boys offering for the position. He is even willing you should try him after the good old fashioned method of probation plan; and adds, if you will elect him he will give the office at the end of six months if he does not make as good a Jailer as the county ever had." That is what Trav says. We say for him, he is a true blue Democrat, an honest, upright man, who, in the face of much adversity and many misfortunes, has made a manly fight, and drawn him a host of friends, who will delight to see him win the humble office he seeks at your hands. Make Trav Leach's acquaintance and you become his friend.

The action of the President in calling an extra session of Congress meets the hearty approval of the country. The pressure brought to bear upon Mr. Cleveland for an earlier session than he had intimated, would be named, was so great that it would hardly have been safe to resist it. The cry went up from all parts of the country for the opportunity to be given Congress to pass upon the Sherman Law, the repeal of which is so urgently desired by members of both the great parties. The country demands that the purchase by the Government of four and a half millions of silver per month be stopped, and so positive is the demand, that it will take a bold man indeed who will dare to vote against its repeal, be he Democrat or Republican, who comes from the East or South and indred from the West, save the so-called silver States. We believe this action on the part of the President will have a most salutary effect on the business interests of the country. The fact that the financial situation will receive the attention of Congress, can not but have a quieting influence on the money market. That the existing scare in the money centers arise more from imaginary than from real causes is pretty generally conceded, and if Congress will promptly remove the Sherman Silver Law, which is a nighty bug-bear for financial pirates to use to scare timid capital, the situation will probably improve at once.

Moorefield, Ky., July 3, 1893. To the Editor of the Mt. Sterling Advocate: My wife, Addie Garrett, as left my bed and home, and I will not be responsible for any delay she may make. Please insert in paper. James Garrett.

The Magazine of the Future.

The July Cosmopolitan will mark the most radical step ever taken in periodical literature. With that issue the magazine, unchanged in form, in fact, one of the best numbers of the Cosmopolitan ever issued, will be put on sale at twelve and one-half cents per copy—$1.50 a year. The cutting in half of a price already deemed low for an illustrated magazine is the result of an intention long since formed, to give to the public an illustrated monthly of the very highest class at such a price as must bring it within the reach of all persons of intellectual tastes, however limited their incomes. There are more than ten million readers in the United States and less than eight hundred thousand magazines are printed to supply their demands. More than four years have been spent in reaching the organization necessary for the production of the Cosmopolitan at this price, the figure hitherto deemed of by the reading world. Each department of the work has been slowly perfected, until with the January number of this year one hundred and fifty thousand copies of the magazine were prepared upon presses and machinery of the most improved form, built with a view to producing the finest results at the very minimum of expense—the only establishment in the world, it is believed, devoted exclusively to the printing of an illustrated monthly magazine. To establish a magazine upon such a basis at the outset was impossible. Only the rapid growth of the Cosmopolitan's editions almost unprecedented in magazine records, has produced the conditions which make this departure from established prices possible. The Cosmopolitan promises to make the year 1893 the most brilliant in its history. No other year has seen such an array of distinguished names as will appear on its title page during 1893. De Maupassant, Mark Twain, George Ethel, Valdez, Spielhagen, Francois, Coppens, Flammarion, and Paul Peyre, are some of the authors whose work will appear for the first time during this year in the pages of the Cosmopolitan. Among the artists whose work will decorate its pages for the first time during 1893 are Laurence, Tonsma, Vlger, Roehgros and Schwab. William Dean Howells will be a regular contributor during 1893-94. A feature of the July number will be triple frontpieces by Roehgros and Guillaumet.

Nunnelle & Co., Talk

To make a rake that will not break
Is quite a task to undertake—
We make it strong, yet keep it light,
A difficult proceeding, quite.
What's just as strange, yet just as true,
We fit it for one horse or two.
We can supply Wood's wooden wheel
Or Wood's unequalled wheel of steel.
Wood's rake-teeth lightly rise and fall
And cause no jerk or jolt at all;
Forward or back they're moved by hand
To suit them to the crop and land.
The rake dumps only when you trip,
And never makes an extra slip;
It heaps the rounded windrows high,
Yet skips no strips of hay close by.
To drive Wood's rake is perfect bliss;
No heavy yanks or jerks like this;
It does not gall or fret the team
And tempt the driver to blasphemy;
A lad or lovely lassie can
Control it equal to a man—
In short, these verses advertise
A rake on which there are no flies.

In working a Wood Binder Mower or Hay Rake, one cannot help making Poetry, because they are so far ahead of the other machines sold, that we naturally find ourselves reveling in the highest of human thoughts. You can get one from Nunnelle & Co., who are also handling the Celebrated Fish Bros. Wagons, besides a full stock of the finest Carriages, Buggies, Saddles, Harness, Plows, etc.

MONEY MATTERS.

ARE always a topic that interests. Its a topic that puts all good people to thinking, and generally takes lots of hustle to keep on top with them. Money is hard to get and harder to save, but there are ways and ways to do a thing. One piece of folly is to pay rent forever. There is a better way to live and have a home. Go to Baird & Winn and borrow the money on easy terms and insure it against fire, and tornado, and then have them insure your life, so that grim death's coming won't leave your wife and children penniless. THE ADVOCATE.

Two innovations in church economy are reported. A Philadelphia church has placed an elevator in its building in order that worshippers may reach the audience room with the ease and convenience accorded them in the walks of secular life. At Fostoria, Ohio, a church has adopted "individual" communion cups. The use of a common cup is thought to be a means of transmitting disease, and the church has purchased 400 little wine glasses, that each communicant may sip from his own cup and none other. Civilization is marching at the double quick and ecclesiasticism must be in line.—Cincinnati Post.

Grape fruit is almost as good as quinine for malarial troubles, and apple as sure cure for sore throat. Tomatoes are perfect liver regulators; they contain a very small portion of mercury. Oranges act on the kidneys very beneficially. While lemons and grapes are efficacious in curing and preventing cancerous troubles. Water cresses act on the lungs and are said to be a cure for incipient consumption. They certainly have nervous power. They refresh one after great fatigue. A diet of grapes as a cure-all has been proved valuable in hundreds of cases, and, if taken in time, a case of jaundice can be cured by eating nothing but lettuce and lemon juice. In the fact of this, can one not almost dispense with doctors?—Farmers' Home Journal.

THE HEMP INDUSTRY.

Low prices have discouraged many of the Kentucky growers, and their hemp fields are planted in corn or tobacco or sown in wheat. The future of this industry is not bright from the farmer's standpoint. Holding on as he does to the old methods the returns are not sufficient to induce the continued culture of this, one of Kentucky's leading staples. Small yields of short coarse staple grown on their land, made ready for the hackle by the old handbrake, are enough to discourage the growing of hemp.

Improved culture, by heavy use of fertilizers and substituting the power for the handbrake, will change these conditions and make the hemp crop one of the most profitable that can be grown.

The increased weight and quality of fiber gotten by Prof. Seavey in a test made at the Kentucky Experimental Station proved the importance of high fertilization in growing hemp. The increased value of the product taken from some well fertilized plots of land showed, after paying for the fertilizer, a very handsome profit over the non-fertilized plots. The time has come when the farmer must study the use of fertilizers, and appropriate such as will bring the largest possible returns from the soil, and having secured a large yield the next move will be to use the power brake.

The farmers of the Northwest are supplanting Kentucky in the production of hemp. Their lands are no more fertile, and in many places are fully as high priced; but the use of machinery in cutting and breaking has made it possible for them to secure a profit at prices which would be below the cost of production to the Kentucky farmer using the methods of years ago when the cotton crop of the South was bailed in Kentucky hemp bagging.

What effect the export duty laid by the Mexican Government on hemp will have on the price of hemp remains to be seen. It is claimed this duty will make its production impossible, and this may widen the field for the use of hemp.

The planters and exporters of hemp have waited upon President Diaz, petitioning against the law imposing this duty, but he has refused to interfere and the law will go into effect.

American farmers should not depend on any market that an import or export duty makes, but should manage to cheapen their production and defy the competition of the world. It was the removal of the duty on imported fibers that caused the decline in hemp. The Kentucky farmer has not adjusted himself to the changed conditions, and is deliberately retreating and sulking over these changes. The Yankee farmer in the Northwest is getting rich growing hemp to make binder twine with which to bind the grain grown on Kentucky farms in fields formerly sown in hemp, now turned to produce fifty-cent wheat.—The Industrial American.

As quick as a wink!
Cure koothache in one minute. It cures all pain immediately—Dr. Fessenden's Golden Relief. It cures corns and blisters, and is also a cure for rheumatism and consumption, and the trouble is not to get the cure, for they follow its use as surely as the day follows night. It is a veritable pain-killer, but the real difficulty is how to tell of them without exhibiting favoritism. And it is not to be wondered at, for there is a wide chasm between "a corn" and a "pulmonary consumption." Still it is true and Dr. Fessenden has got something to make "the people" know it. It is Golden Relief "a cure all." Well, not exactly. It is known to cure corn disease. It is a veritable specific in it. That disease is Irritation. It cures it wherever found. Many diseases have inflammation for their base. The list is long. It includes corns and consumption. No inflammation, no cure. No inflammation, no consumption. Isn't this the solution? No opinion or mutual prejudice. It is safe and certain. Never disappointed. Money refunded if satisfaction not given. Take a bottle home to-day.

The World's Fair and American Railways.

The Queen & Crescent Route widely known as the road running the "Fleet of Trains in the South," is the able field to carry everybody from the South to the World's Fair at Chicago. No part of the Southern country is left uncared for by this great railway and its connections. The Through Car System is an admirable exposition of the wonderful capabilities of American railroading. From New Orleans Through Sleeping Cars run daily, morning and evening, carrying its passengers via Cincinnati or Louisville, where they may select.

From Shreveport, Vicksburg and Jackson another Through Sleeping Car Line comes to join and become a part of the magnificent Vestibled Through Trains, which passing through Birmingham and the famous Wills Valley of Alabama, is joined at Chattanooga by the train from Jacksonville, Fla., Brunswick, and Atlanta, Ga., over the E. T. V. & Ga. railroad, and proceeds north over the beautiful Cincinnati Southern, through the grandest natural scenery and most attractive historical country in the world, to Oakland, where another magnificent Pullman car is furnished, coupling from the Richmond & Danville System from Charleston, S. C., through Columbia, S. C., the beautiful French Broad country, and Asheville, N. C. and Knoxville, Tenn.

The time to Chicago is made so as afford the most convenient hours for departures from the principal cities and arrivals in Chicago.

Passengers can purchase tickets good over one line north of the river, and returning via another if they desire a variable route without extra charge. Or they can go via Cincinnati, returning via Louisville, or vice versa.

Round trip tickets on sale at reduced rates. Agents of the Chicago line will on request assist in looking up rooms or accommodation for visitors to the Fair.

Everything that an almost perfect system can devise to deserve the praise and patronage of the traveling public has been provided. Any of the agents of the company named below, will cheerfully give all possible information and assistance. R. H. Garratt, New Orleans, La. I. Hardy, Vicksburg, Miss. J. R. McGregor, Birmingham, Ala. The cowboy race from Chadron, Neb., to the World's Fair was won by John Berry, who reached the World's Fair Tuesday morning. The 1,040 miles between Chadron and Chicago was covered in thirteen days and six hours. Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) thinks the race was a great success and says the Europeans who have been watching it will "make a rush" for the American broucho for cavalry purposes.

Setting Out Strawberry Plants.

Strawberry plants should be set out in rows four feet apart, with the plants two feet apart in the row that is, if you are going to use the strong-growing commercial kinds. If the land is high priced the rows may be one foot nearer, but I get the best results from the above distance. It is customary to take runners of the preceding year's growth. Such plants have white roots, and are thrifty and grow much better than older plants. They will not bear more than a tenth of a crop the first season, if allowed to fruit the first year, but all the fruit should be picked off the first year, so that the whole strength of the plant is thrown into forming new plants which will fruit the next year.—Strawberry Culturist.

THE SALT RUB.

Its Invigorating Qualities Equal to a Sea Bath.

Various sanitariums and private hospitals are using "the salt rub," and it is becoming so popular that some Turkish bath establishments are advertising it as a special attraction. It is just as good for well people as sick ones, is the most refreshing of all the baths and rubs ever invented, only excepting a dip in the sea itself, and is matchless in its effect upon the skin and complexion. With all these virtues it is the simplest, most easily managed of all similar measures, and can be taken at home easily.

Put a few pounds of coarse salt, the coarsest you can get, sea salt by preference, in an earthen jar and pour enough water on it to produce a sort of slush, but not enough to dissolve the salt. This should then be taken up in handfuls and rubbed briskly over the entire person. Of course it is better to have it rubbed on by another person, but anyone in ordinary health can do it for herself or himself very satisfactorily. This being done, the next thing is a thorough douching of clear water, preferably cold, and a brisk rubbing with a dry towel.

The effect of elation, freshness and renewed life is felt immediately, and the satiny texture of the skin and increased clearness and brightness of the complexion swell the testimony of the salt rub.—E.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Mabel Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. His told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at W. S. Lloyd's drug store, large bottles 50c. and 1.00.

Hon. J. M. Oliver, of Mt. Sterling, will confer the Eastern Star degree at the residence of Dr. N. F. Pierce, on Spencer, at two o'clock P. M., Saturday, July 8th. All Master Masons in good standing, wife, daughter and daughter over the age of 18 years are entitled to it and are invited.

Thousands of acres of hill land which now are apparently worthless could be redeemed and made profitable by encouraging the growth of clover and other green crops and then using the land for sheep. This practice is followed in some cases, but there are many where it could be as well applied.

Lovers of the rod will find two capital articles—"Salmon Fishing on the Newfoundland Coast," and "Black Bass Fishing in Maine." In "Outing for July," which is full of fish purely for fun, caring naught what the quarry be, he will read with interest of the many valuable qualities of "The Frog for Pan and Pastime."

In view of the present financial conditions, farmers should show an increase of faith in their business by such farm improvements as they may be able to make. One factor in the depreciation of farm values in the past was the lack of faith in his business by the farmer himself. If a farmer failed from any cause his brother farmers published the fact far and wide and said "It is because farming did not pay." It is because of this that 10 out of 20 merchants in the country fail, or who ever heard that class of business men join in a chorus that mercantile business did not pay?—N. E. Farmer.

On Trial.

That's a good way to buy a medicine, but it's a pretty hard condition under which to try it. Perhaps you've noticed the ordinary trial or kind medicine doesn't attempt it.

The only remedy of its kind so remarkable in its effect that it could be sold on this plan is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. There's nothing like it as a blood cleanser, strengthener and flesh builder known to medical science. In every disease where the fault is in the liver or the blood, as Dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness and the most stubborn skin, scalp and scrofulous affections it is guaranteed in every case to benefit or cure, or you have your money back.

"Possibly you would like to know as a matter of curiosity that a pullet, hatched on January 10, laid on May 19. This is the earliest case of laying I ever remember, the pullet being only eleven weeks and three days old. We shall try to get some chickens hatched from this pullet's eggs, and send one or more to the New York and Boston shows, not with any hope of winning, but as a curiosity in being able to send chickens produced from birds hatched the same year. I may say that every care has been taken of her and she has been fed almost exclusively on wheat and corn. I will try to get her to lay again in the fall."—Portland (Me) Transcript.

A Novel Fodder.

Farmers and all those who have reason to dread the ill effects of prolonged drought on their cattle will welcome the recent demonstrations of M. Girard in his series of experiments to test the nourishing quality of tree leaves as cattle fodder. Careful analysis enabled M. Girard to declare that the leaves of trees, as compared with other fodders, show "high nourishing ratio, whether fresh or dried. In his opinion leaves are not surpassed as fodder by the products of natural prairies or pasture lands. These conclusions based on chemical analysis, have been amply confirmed by experiments as to the digestibility of tree leaves when given as food to cattle. M. Girard says that good crops of tree leaves could be gathered without in any way damaging the forests by arresting timber growth, provided the growth of the leaves be carried on judiciously, so as not to deprive the trees of the very necessary "mouths" and "lungs." It has been suggested that the use of leaf fodder would prove a source of wealth to countries having a poor soil or arid climate. In some of the West India Islands large numbers of cattle are kept alive through periods of severe drought, when no other fodder is available, by the leaves of forest trees. The foliage of some of these trees is both nutritious and stimulating, and it is said to be equal in work-producing qualities—especially in the case of the breadnut tree—to Indian corn. Mr. Girard's views have been freely canvassed in England, where it is believed the use of leaves as cattle food during the dry weather spells would help the badly distressed farmers to tide over times of scarcity, so that they would not be compelled to sell live stock at ruinously low prices, owing to the want of pasture fodder.—Courier-Journal.

A prominent feature of Outing for July is a sweetly pathetic story "Passe-elle," by Clara Sprague Ross. The characters are portrayed with mastery power by a pen so sympathetic that it refines and sweetens humdrum life and incidents in the backwoods, and draws the hapless little heroine very near the reader's heart. Such pure, wholesome reading is infinitely preferable to the poisoned rubbish too freely placed before our young people under the cover of holiday literature. The number is strong through in text and illustrations; other notable articles being the history of "champion jacks," "How we Towed Our Way," an account of a trip by canal boat through the Empire State, "Practical Lessons in Swimming," "Salmon Fishing on the Newfoundland Coast," "The Frog for Pan and Pastime," and "Black Bass Fishing in Maine."

Summer Suggestions.

Do not make too many visits, and where you do go be sure that your visit is a convenient one. Do not entertain too generously; summer should be a time of rest, and it is difficult to rest with a house full of guests.

Place a large dish of water in a room where the heat is very oppressive. Change once or twice and the atmosphere will be preceptibly lowered.

Sponge your babies with cold water at bed time.

Give your children water to drink during the hot weather. They need this to make up for the loss from perspiration.

In washing summer frocks, if the color run put half a cupful of salt into the last rinsing water.

For luncheon in summer take a cold bath at bedtime.

Press towels, folded as usual, through your cloths-wringer and save your laundress.

Have mercy on your cook in your arrangements for your meals for hot days.

Bathe daily.

Wash your house gowns made with open necks and elbow sleeves.

Save your steps.

Allow double the amount of time in catching baths and trains that you do in winter.

Eat your meals slowly.

Drink milk slowly.—Ex.

Notwithstanding the expert testimony of Oculist Dudley S. Reynolds to the contrary, the jury in the case of Mrs. Margaret Powers against him, at Louisville agreed that he was the D.S. Reynolds who negotiated the loan of $1,000 about a quarter of a century ago. The interest will bring the amount of the verdict up to about $4,000.

HORSE AND TRACK.

The great baby show at the Fair on Friday.

Alma Master is now the dam of seven in the 2:30 list.

Our track is in good shape and fast time will be made.

At a recent meeting in Ohio, only two and six pneumatic tires were punctured.

The dealers in Boston say that the prices of good roadsters are higher than they were last year.

Most of the trainers still use the high wheel sulkey for training purposes.

Waiting for a bigger offer is apt to prove unprofitable.

Fair begins to-day; three good races; go and see them.

Do not fall to attend the Fair each day. You will see a fine show of stock and fast trots.

Kentucky Union, 2:13½, sprained her off foreleg a few days ago, and will probably be laid up for the season.

Dr. Sparks, 2:14½, will try and lower his present fast record during the week.

The Jewett farm is marching into the 2:15 list with a rush. At Cornerville, Turco took a record of 2:13½ and at Rushville, Favara made a race record of 2:13½.

The amphitheatre has been changed to the West side of the track, and you can see all the race.

Gill Curry has driven Major Wonder, 2:10, a mile faster than his record and a half in 1:52½.

Dobie has already got Stamboul so he trots with a side-check and does not pull a pound.

The pacer Blue Sign, 2:08½ is going fast enough in his work to make his friends believe that he will get a big slice of the Buffalo free-for-all paces purse.

Some horses trot much faster with long toes, while others, with about the same kind of gait, go much better with the toes short. All these things are a matter of judgment and learned through close observation and practice.

There is nothing the matter with the trotting-horse industry if only the men who are engaged in breeding will quit figuring on raising a 2:10 horse, and awaken to the fact that there is money in geldings that can be sold at three or four years of age for from $200 to $400 for use on the road.

OUR BANKS.

A Glance at the Statements of the Mt. Sterling National, New Farmers and Exchange Banks.

Find in another column the semi-annual statement of the Exchange Bank. Read it, and congratulate the management on the excellent showing they make. In these times of breaking banks it is refreshing to see such a sound institution calmly surviving the financial disorder that fills unsound corporations with terror.

The Mt. Sterling National Bank presents for the edification of its stockholders and depositors its thirty-eighth annual statement. Look at it and see if it does not make you feel that the rock upon which it is built is a strong one. This bank is in good shape to weather the strongest storm that blows. Over fifty-six thousand dollars is a mighty comfortable cash balance to fall back upon.

That old and tried institution, the New Farmers Bank, that (as a State and National Bank) has done business with our farmers and business men for more than forty years, presents to its customers its semi-annual statement. The fact that it is able to declare a 3 per cent. semi-annual dividend to its stockholders, should be sufficient evidence of its healthful condition; this, too, under a new banking law and under the further pressure of a close money market. Glance at its comfortable cash balance; but better than all, remember its conservative, honest and careful management and one can find every reason to feel that the institution is, as it has always been, one of the stalwart enterprises in our midst.

To persons suffering from impurities of the blood, we would advise them to try the "Hot Springs vapor treatment" at Lexington, Kentucky. But little time would be lost from business, and the same results can be obtained as at the Springs, and at cost for taking these baths is more than twenty times less than at the Springs.

ESTAY.

A little two-year-old heifer, Owner can have her by proving her and paying all charges. Came to my place about the 10th of May.
